Advanced wireless access with WiFi 6E, AI-powered cloud management, and industry-leading support

Get an AP3000 or AP3000X free* when you purchase a 3-year or 5-year Extreme Platform ONE™ subscription

Universal Wireless APs deliver future-proof value. A choice of operating system and the industry's simplest licensing reduce cost and increase flexibility. Cloud management with AI drives efficiency. Built-in WPA3 and firewall secures access.

Agile, energy efficient, and future-ready wireless

Secure, always-on wireless anywhere you need it

From high-density venues to distributed campuses, delivering consistent wireless performance is complex. Extreme's portfolio of access points supports real-time experiences with support for massive roaming domains, BLE use cases, and location services.

Simpler management from cloud or on-premises

Managing wireless at scale can be overwhelming without the right management. Extreme simplifies connectivity with powerful orchestration, whether from the cloud or an on-prem controller, enabling high-quality experiences from small offices to large roaming environments.

Efficient power consumption, exceptional performance

Power constraints can limit wireless performance and deployment flexibility. Extreme's APs are optimised for 802.3at PoE+ and 802.3bt PoE++, delivering full WiFi capabilities with minimal power draw, ideal for high-density environments and future-ready without forcing premature switch upgrades.

AI for networking with Extreme Platform ONE™

Traditional wireless troubleshooting is reactive and time-consuming. Extreme's built-in AI for networking automates across the entire lifecycle, from planning to remediation, handling client experience, device health, PoE anomalies, and more in minutes, not hours.

* Must purchase 3-Year or 5-Year Extreme Platform ONE subscription with the AP. Blended discount across the promotional SKUs will result in free AP.

Product highlights

AP3000 highlights

The AP3000 is a Universal, World SKU WiFi 6E indoor access point with two 2x2:2 radios delivering 802.11ax rates up to 4.8 Gbps. Its small, low-power form factor with internal antennas brings high-speed, highly secure WiFi to budget-conscious enterprises.

Radio technology

- Dual-radio design: 2.4/5 GHz (2x2:2)
- 5/6 GHz (2x2:2), plus IoT radio

Operational modes

- Mode 1: 2.4 GHz/5 GHz data radios
- Mode 2: 5 GHz/6 GHz data radios

Universal hardware platform

- Cloud Management: ExtremeCloud IQ, Extreme Platform ONE
- On-Premises: WiNG OS (Distributed), ExtremeCloud IQ Controller (Centralised)

WiFi 6E enhanced capacity

- 6 GHz adds up to 1,200 MHz of spectrum for faster speeds and less interference

WPA3 support

- Latest WPA3 certifications, Universal ZTNA enforcement, and a stateful L2-L7 DPI firewall

Fully functional over 802.3af

Cellular Coexistence Filter (CCF)

- Minimises the impact of interference from cellular networks

AP3000X highlights

The AP3000X delivers the same WiFi 6E performance as the AP3000, with external antenna options and an extended -20°C to +55°C range for dense or harsh environments such as classrooms, warehouses, and manufacturing.

Advanced radio technology

Dual-radio design

- 2.4/5 GHz (2x2:2)
- 5/6 GHz (2x2:2)
- IoT radio: Thread, Bluetooth 5.2 LE, 802.15.4

Operational modes

- Mode 1: 2.4 GHz/5 GHz data radios
- Mode 2: 5 GHz/6 GHz data radios

Universal hardware platform

- Cloud Management: ExtremeCloud IQ, Extreme Platform ONE
- On-Premises: WiNG OS (Distributed), ExtremeCloud IQ Controller

Dense and harsh environments

- External antennas and extended temperature range suit demanding sites

WPA3 support

- Latest WPA3 certifications, Universal ZTNA policy enforcement, Fabric integration, and PPSK

Fully functional over 802.3af

Cellular Coexistence Filter (CCF)

- Minimises the impact of interference from cellular networks
